HI!

I'm Kaitlyn. I'm a UX designer and researcher. I thrive on the challenge of understanding user needs and translating them into intuitive and engaging experiences. I strive to use empathy, curiosity, and collaboration in all of my work. I believe that as a UX designer, it is my duty to be an advocate for all of my users and design responsibly and carefully. I have experience in B2B E-commerce design. I am currently seeking roles in San Jose, CA or the San Francisco Bay Area.
